

How Managed IT Services Align with SMB Business Priorities

Despite the need to embrace technology and IT innovation, most SMBs lack the necessary vision, strategy and resources. However, partnering with a managed services provider can help SMBs address these challenges to achieve strategic growth that aligns with their business' priorities – including the top SMB business priorities that are depicted below.

Source: CompTIA "The Business Relevance of IT in the SMB Market," December 2016